

Group winner, Group sire

IGLESIA

(Last Tycoon Ire-Yodells-Marscay)

Little wonder IGLESIA, the former race day champion and now champion sire has a twinkle in his eye.

His two crops of racing age have each amassed more than $1 million in earnings and his first batch produced four individual stakes winners, leading IGLESIA to be crowned Queensland's champion new sire and the second most successful new stallion in Australia in 2004-05.

His sons Foolish and Reigart completed year-to-year victories in the Fitton Hopeful Plate (2YO) and Reigart was also placed in the 2006 Magic Millions Classic.

IGLESIA'S three-year-olds have not been overshadowed by the successes of his younger runners with his daughter Nova Star storming to victory in 2006 G2 Queensland Guineas at Eagle Farm, while his son Diamondsondinside proved his semi-classic credentials with a powerful win in the 2006 Sunshine Coast Guineas.

IGLESIA'S triumphs have not been limited to the race track. His yearlings, for instance, are so popular they command up to $280,000 in the sale ring.

His own record says so and his progeny are proving it – there is no other way to say it, IGLESIA is a champion.
